

I recently had the pleasure of dealing with Wanda with regard to Leasing office space for our businesses. Wanda was extremely professional conscientious and dedicated to her work. Her service was excellent for both our group, the tenant and certainly how she represented the landlord.

I would have absolutely no hesitation in recommending her for any future needs anybody may have with regard to leasing commercial or office space. I certainly, as a landlord appreciate her hard work and intend on using her in the future

Michael Gelmon